

GASTRO INTESTINAL SUPPORT PROTOCOL

Gut health is the basis of all health!

The gut produces 75% of the Immune system function and 90% of Neurotransmitters in the body. If your pet has always had a sensitive tummy, or a recent major episode, Start Here!

PROBIOTICS

Whether your pet has chronic GI inflammation or no current health issues, a probiotic can benefit it in the long run. Physical and mental well-being lean on the healthy functioning of the gut. Prevention is the best treatment for any illness or disease. Keeping the balance of good bacteria now will help keep your pet strong and ready to fight off anything.
